—Council meeting next Monday night.

—Prices of commodities are said to be dropping but, really, had you noticed it?

—Thursday brought the sort of weather well calculated to remind us that the "melancholy days" are all too near.

—Considerable corn has been cut in this county the past week but much of the crop must have more time to mature.

—Quite a number of Canfield young people enjoyed a corn and Weiner roast at the Ellsworth lake last Saturday night.

—Earle Stock of Youngstown, formerly of Canfield, and Miss Frankie Greenawald of Salem were united in marriage at Lisbon last Wednesday.

—Last Saturday was a real honest to goodness summer day, but people who then complained of the heat would not mind having some of it now.

—The 6th O. V. V. C. will hold its annual next Tuesday, Dr. L. D. Coy of Warren next Tuesday, Dr. L. D. Coy of Canfield is a member of the regiment.

—The scarcity of boarding houses in Canfield makes an opening for a business that could not prove otherwise than profitable if properly conducted.

—About 50 members of Parkview Rehearsal lodge and their friends were entertained at a corn and Weiner roast last Thursday night by Mrs. Ralph Lynn at her home, northeast of the village.

—Lady Macabees and their husbands, to the number of 175, drove over from Youngstown and made merry at a corn and Weiner roast Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ewing, east of Toot's Corners.

—The annual reunion of the Second Ohio Cavalry and 25th Ohio Battery will be held in Cleveland Thursday, Oct. 14. Co. E. of the Second was largely recruited in Canfield but only one member, John Martin, residing at Dublin, is left to tell of the valor of his comrades.

—The remains of Mrs. Barbara Supply, who died recently at the home of her son, Albert Supply, east of the village, were taken to Wilkes-Barre, Pa., her old home, for burial. Her age was 74. She is survived by her son with whom she had lived since July and two daughter residing in Wilkes-Barre.

—Arrangements are about complete for ministers' day of retreat to be held in the Canfield Presbyterian church, Monday, Oct. 11. All ministers of the county are expected to attend the retreat, which will have morning and afternoon sessions, with devotional, social and recreational features. A speaker from abroad will be secured to lead the discussions.

—Automobiles driven by John Miller of Canfield and Sheriff Ben Morris of Youngstown collided at Smith's Corners last Friday afternoon and both machines were badly wrecked. The Packard sedan driven by Miller was headed south on the Austintown-Canfield road and the sheriff in his Cadillac touring car came from the east. At the cross roads the machines crashed together, the Packard turning over on its side and the Cadillac did worse than that. Mr. Miller says he drove well off the right side of the road and made every effort possible to avert the accident. The passengers in his car were badly shaken up but all escaped serious injury. Sheriff Morris and little daughter, Florence were cut by glass and Mrs. Morris sustained two broken ribs and severe lacerations. It was feared at first that she had been fatally injured. She is reported to be recovering nicely.

—Miss Harriet B. Bond died at 2 o'clock last Sunday morning at the home of P. T. Jones on North Broad street after an illness of nine months of paralysis, aged 72. Deceased was a daughter of the late Elijah and Jane Fitch Bond who came to Canfield from Connecticut more than a century ago and was born in Canfield Feb. 20, 1848. She lived in the old home on West Main street all her life, until her illness, when she was taken to the Jones home. She was quiet and unassuming in marked degree, yet the friend of all, kind and considerate. She was a member of the Presbyterian church, all her life taking a deep interest in religious matters. Her nearest surviving relatives are two cousins, Mrs. P. T. Jones, Canfield, and Mrs. Mary Ruppel, Ravenna. Funeral services Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock were conducted by Rev. W. P. Hollister from the Presbyterian church; interment in the village cemetery.

DRYING WITH HEAT GIVES BEST SEED CORN

The best seed corn can only be produced by artificial drying, according to agronomists at the Ohio Experiment Station.

In tests covering five years with seed corn handled under half a dozen different conditions comparable with farm practice, the corn receiving artificial heat has given an average germination of more than 95 percent.

Drying in racks in the corn crib, in piles, boring holes in cobs of the seed ears, or drying by burying cobs, has proven better than selecting seed corn from the crib in the spring, but under these conditions the percent of germination is not as high as in the artificially dried corn.

With the severe freezing of the 1918 season the ordinary method of handling was a failure, only the dried corn being satisfactory for planting.

Grip

Grip usually starts just the same as a cold with an unpleasant discharge from the nose. You are much more likely to contract the grip when you have a cold. For that reason when grip is prevalent you should go to bed as soon as you feel that you are taking cold and stay in bed until fully recovered which should not be long if you take Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Three days in bed now is better than three weeks later on—Adv.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

—A good town will do more to keep the boys at home than good advice.

—Boys playing with matches started a fire on the Warren fair grounds one day last week that destroyed the paddocks and cattle sheds.

—Miss Ruth Mildred Malmesbury and Millard E. Alles, popular young people of North Benton, were united in marriage last Saturday.

—With the slashing of prices by automobile manufacturers, city mail order houses and restaurateurs, better days would seem to be in sight.

—It now seems extremely doubtful about President Wilson being able physically to give active assistance to the democratic party in the closing weeks of the campaign.

—Don't spend all your time telling what you would do if you had some time. The people who talk the most about not having time are the ones who make the least use of spare minutes.

—County Commissioner Allen Shale is receiving many assurances of support at the coming election because of the efficient service he is giving the county during his first term, which he says is most gratifying as he has aimed to give his best efforts in the discharge of official duties.

—The Bethesda Presbyterian church at Millport last Friday, Saturday and Sunday celebrated its centennial, an occasion of historic importance to the church and congregation. This is the second Presbyterian church in Columbiana county to celebrate its centennial within a few weeks, the other being at New Waterford.

—The publication of Romance has been suspended by the Butterick Co. owing to the shortage and high price of paper, the increasing demands of labor in the printing trades, and other abnormal general conditions. When big concerns are forced out of business, what must happen to the small publishers of the country?

—Two stills, six barrels of rasin jack and two foreigns were taken in a raid by federal and county officers last week Thursday night between Rosemont and Ellsworth Station. The stills were concealed in underbrush in a thicket on Geo. Nodas's farm. His truck was also confiscated. John Hubby and Nodas were taken to Youngstown by deputy sheriff Ford Agency to whose cleverness the success of the raid was largely due.

—Travel upon the Canton-Alliance paved road has become so heavy that much of the pleasure of auto riding is taken away. On Sunday a citizen of Louisville counted the autos which passed his residence in one hour and found the number to be 480. To dodge that number in the distance of a few miles keeps the driver on a constant watch.—Louisville Herald. The same conditions exist on roads in Canfield and vicinity, not only on Sunday, but every day.

—The old-fashioned boy wore a suit of clothes which cost about $8. His mother made his shirts out of some coarse, striped stuff, and if he wore any collar at all it was made of paper and his tie was of the butterfly pattern. Contrast the boy of today. His dress suit costs about $50 and he wears silk shirts which cost as much as the whole outfit of the old-fashioned boy. The new boy wears $3 neckties if you please and silk socks something the boy of 40 years ago knew nothing about. Someone has said that the only good thing about "the good old times" is that they are gone and everyone who has reached the more mature years realizes this.

—A local newspaper is absolutely necessary to any community. It is the home paper that keeps the people of the community in touch with each other by giving them all the news of their own neighborhood. For that alone they are of value and worth far more than the small subscription price. They keep the local pride and progressive spirit aroused and in various ways are worth far more to a community than a community ever spends on them. The daily paper with its large news service and quicker facilities may, in some instances overshadow the weekly, but the weekly home paper fills a place in the hearts of the people that a daily cannot fill. It comes to you home at an old and tried friend while the daily enters as a stranger.

An increase in freight rates when the pay of railway workers is increased $600,000,000 is the caboose, or something that necessarily follows.

The Valley of the Aime is to have tea rooms for the benefit of tourists to the devastated regions. So in the triumph of the trivial over the tragic laughs the sarcasm of fate.

It's hard on the home gardener's temper to learn that the market price on something has dropped just as he begins to figure on how much he is saving by having a garden of his own.

In many parts of Europe, it seems, there is a strong indisposition to work. Either this is a contagion that has spread across the sea, or it is one of those touches of nature that make the whole world kin.

Within the ranks of producers and wage workers many co-operative enterprises are springing up. When the consumers are taken in to share the benefits of these organizations a long step will have been made toward the elimination of profiteering and allied abuses.

Got Her Good Health Out of a Bottle

Mrs. Edward Rainsford, Wabash, Ind., says that she owes her good health to Chamberlain's Tablets. She suffered from distress after eating and constipation and was completely cured by the use of these tablets.—Adv.
